

Proposed Wellbeing and Sustainable Development (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Member's Bill to ensure policy development and implementation by public bodies is in line with principles of sustainable development and wellbeing by introducing a duty for public bodies to promote these principles and establishing a Commissioner for sustainable development and wellbeing.

The consultation runs from 14 December 2022 to 24 March 2023

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

This is something that needs to be done for the benefit of all. In the past it has been brushed over and in a way ignored in proper manner it was intended

I feel that once proposal are completely decided upon it legislation would ensure the Bills aims would be more effectively achieved

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the definition should include.

Sustainable development is a necessity and to ensure it is carried through completely it most certainly should be defined in legislation

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether 'wellbeing' should be defined in legislation?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the definition should include.

Well being affects everyone and it is an essential issue that needs to be defined in legislation to ensure it doesnt slip off the radar again

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether there should be a Commissioner for sustainable development and wellbeing?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the key functions of the proposed Commissioner should be (see pages 19 to 20 of the consultation document), what model of governance could be adopted (see page 22 to 23), and whether the Commissioner could play a role in strengthening existing duties or legislation.

In my view there needs to be someone responsible to ensure the sustainable development and wellbeing is kept on the agenda and pushed to ensure it is carried through at all times I feel a Commissioner for sustainable development and wellbeing would ensure they would not be allowed to disappear and would be the ideal person to strengthen all of it within existing duties or legislation

Q6. What, in your view, should the title of the proposed Commissioner be?

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Wellbeing and Sustainable Development (Scotland) Bill Commissioner

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether there is a need for duties for public bodies to promote sustainable development and wellbeing in policy development and implementation?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response including views on any barriers to implementation of these duties and on how the effectiveness of implementation could be measured.

The sustainable development and wellbeing are so important that they should be a main issue in Policy Development and Implementation to ensure they are always to the fore and on agendas to ensure they do not slip off the radar as has happened before

Financial Implications

Q8. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

some increase in costs

Please explain the reasons for your response, including who you would expect to feel the financial impact of the proposal, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could be delivered more cost-effectively.

There will more than likely be an increase in costs but I dont feel it will be impossible to meet were or when it becomes law

Equalities

Q9. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your response and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

If done properly it should be equal on everyone and everything when and if it becomes Law it would if done properly avoid negative impacts on everyone there would be no section different from all persons who would be equally in the impact of the new law

Sustainability

Q10. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your response, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

All new Laws can impact on every section of environment, the sustainable economy but done properly it can create a strong, healthy and just society for future generations
