

Proposed Wellbeing and Sustainable Development (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Member's Bill to ensure policy development and implementation by public bodies is in line with principles of sustainable development and wellbeing by introducing a duty for public bodies to promote these principles and establishing a Commissioner for sustainable development and wellbeing.

The consultation runs from 14 December 2022 to 24 March 2023

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Each of us must foster our own clear understanding of wellbeing and sustainability as we lead our lives and times change, yet for the purpose of legislation, regulation and planning for the future, it is extremely important to seek the consensus and agreement afforded in this Bill.

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

A legislative Act is required.

Q3. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether 'sustainable development' should be defined in legislation?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the definition should include.

Development is to be encouraged though always regulated. Cohesion needed in meeting massive challenges for society and reaffirming commitment to equal opportunity and gaining fairer redistribution of wealth.

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether 'wellbeing' should be defined in legislation?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the definition should include.

What is government for but to protect wellbeing in body and soul . So freedom of speech, freedom to hold faith in anything other than hate or disregard for humanity and our environment. Equal opportunity with confidence that the stakes aren't stacked against anyone. No one should have to experience anxiety about leaving toxicity, especially nuclear waste, for future generations to suffer from or cope with.

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether there should be a Commissioner for sustainable development and wellbeing?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including any views on what the key functions of the proposed Commissioner should be (see pages 19 to 20 of the consultation document), what model of governance could be adopted (see page 22 to 23), and whether the Commissioner could play a role in strengthening existing duties or legislation.

Certainly the Commissioner should have powers of scrutiny over public bodies and the legislature itself. Building coherent principles of sustainability and commitment to wellbeing within public bodies and broadly in law making is valuable.

Q6. What, in your view, should the title of the proposed Commissioner be?

Please explain the reasons for your response.

"Better Things Commissioner" The original Viking meaning of the word , thing, was a diet or gathering to make decisions. The town called Dingwall gets its name from the field of the parliament. Then much later, in Shakespeare's Hamlet " The play is the thing, wherein we'll catch the conscience of the King."

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether there is a need for duties for public bodies to promote sustainable development and wellbeing in policy development and implementation?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response including views on any barriers to implementation of these duties and on how the effectiveness of implementation could be measured.

Public bodies must balance options and be pragmatic, though might take the line of least resistance if matters of long term consideration or complete fairness are not represented through the office now proposed.

There should be virtual and actual sites along with good old fashioned tv and Radio slots, where the Commissioner's work can be made open and available to the general public.

Financial Implications

Q8. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

some increase in costs

Please explain the reasons for your response, including who you would expect to feel the financial impact of the proposal, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could be delivered more cost-effectively.

The value of good legislation in terms of raised productivity should not be overlooked. Tax revenues can be set against costs.

Equally, polluters of any type, might have to accept extra expense of increased tax or penalty payment which could go ring fenced toward funding of the office which is the subject of this Bill.

Equalities

Q9. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your response and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

Sustainability

Q10. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your response, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

No Response

General

Q11. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

good luck and have courage. Thanks.
